

Fall Regional Workshops

October 27 New Westminster

Join us for a two-hour, practical, how-to workshop.

4:30 pm

Basic Care and Handling for Museum Objects

Nikki Bose,
Kelowna Museums Society

Explore simple techniques to minimize the risk of improper handling including preventative conservation, agents of deterioration, hazardous artifacts, storage materials, and more.

Try and Try Again – a How-to for Success with the BC Arts Council Projects Grants

Sue Donaldson, BC Arts Council

Learn how BC Arts Council project grants work for museums, including what to apply for, what happens after it is submitted, what happens during adjudication, and what requests succeed.

Making Progress: An Archives Success Story of How To Digitize 116 Years of Local History

Matthew Francis
and Shannon Bettles,
Chilliwack Museum and Archives
Martin Warkentin,
University of the Fraser Valley

Learn how the Chilliwack Museum and Archives completed an ambitious digitization project that saw 116 years of The Chilliwack Progress newspaper become free to the public.

Continued on next page >>

Fall Regional Workshops (cont.)

6:30 pm

The Duty, Documentation & Dilemmas of Deaccessioning

Lana Panko, City of Surrey

Luc Desmarais, North Vancouver Museum and Archives

Magdalena Moore

Tom Gooden,
Burnaby Village Museum

Removing an object from a collection requires a careful, documented procedure of deaccessioning. Learn professional standards, steps involved, and ethical and legal implications.

Virtual Collaboration: A How-to Primer

Ben Ziegler, Collaborative Journeys

Discover insights, tips, and how-to's for better virtual communication and collaboration. Learn how to stay focused on people and relationships; how to get things done when technology is a barrier; and how to keep engagement high.

Selfie Stick: Unpacking the Mystery

Mairin Kerr and
Yukiko Stranger-Galey,
Beaty Biodiversity Museum

Michelle Taylor,
City of New Westminster

How can museums take advantage of the selfie stick trend? Unpack the mysteries of this tool, including a discussion of how museums have reacted and successfully used it in exhibitions and events.

Register today!

- › Location: Anvil Centre, 777 Columbia St, New Westminster
- › BCMA Members $30 each
- › Future Members $45 each

Or visit <http://bit.ly/PostCon15>

Regional Workshops are offered immediately following the 2015 Conference Oct 25-27. Interested in also attending the conference? Check our website for details: museumsassn.bc.ca

NEW WESTMINSTER