

Presented by the Richmond Museum

Textile Conservation Workshop

With Conservator, Rebecca Pavitt of Fine Art Conservation

November 26, 2015 | 1:00–5:00 p.m.

Richmond Cultural Centre Atrium | 7700 Minoru Gate, Richmond, BC

An opportunity for Museum professionals, students, textile artists and enthusiasts to learn about the care, preservation and restoration of textiles through hands on activities and demonstrations from Conservator, Rebecca Pavitt.

Rebecca Pavitt has worked in textile conservation since 1988. She has a MA in Art Conservation and is an accredited member of the Canadian Association of Professional Conservators. She has provided services for institutions like, The Vancouver Art Gallery, Museum of Vancouver, Barkerville Historic Town and the University of British Columbia Special Collections.

Find us on

To Register

Telephone:
604 276-4300

For online registration:
www.richmond.ca/register

Event #126608

Cost: $40

BRITISH COLUMBIA
ARTS COUNCIL
Supported by the Province of British Columbia

