

Coquitlam Heritage Symposium

You are cordially invited to join us as we Explore Heritage in Coquitlam

April 16th, 2016 | 9am-4pm
Evergreen Cultural Centre

The Coquitlam Heritage Society is very excited to be hosting the Coquitlam Heritage Symposium, which will bring together heritage supporters in Coquitlam to learn, discuss, and develop ways to enrich our communities through the sharing of heritage and culture.

This one-day symposium will include renowned consultants from across the heritage industry who will facilitate workshops and give presentations on the latest trends, best practices, and new opportunities for heritage groups. Workshop leaders include Tim Willis, Candace Matelic, Theresa Mackay, and Emily Lonie.

Tickets include a buffet-style lunch, snacks, and beverages. Discounts are available for groups of five or more, students, and seniors. Please note that space is limited and early registration is advised. Click here to purchase tickets!
