

Nomination Form

BC Museums Association is accepting nominations for individuals making a substantial contribution to BC's cultural sector for its upcoming issue of Roundup Magazine. Selected winners will be featured in Roundup's winter 2016 issue, Change Makers. Change Makers aims to celebrate the sector and the exceptional and innovative people who make it great.

Nominations are encouraged for individuals of all ages and stages in their career from across BC who demonstrate innovation, imagination and advancement in the field. Nominees can represent various sectors including leadership, education, exhibition design, archives, customer services, technology, communications or marketing. They can be paid staff or volunteers.

Criteria:

- Individuals must be currently working or volunteering in the cultural sector.
- Individuals who are retired from the cultural sector are eligible.
- Individuals may be from non-profit, private or public sectors.
- Businesses, organizations, projects or teams are ineligible. Only individuals are eligible.
- Self nominations are admissible.

Winners will be selected from the nominees by the Roundup Magazine Editorial Committee, a representative sub-committee of the BCMA. Nominations are encouraged from across BC. A person can nominate more than one individual. Not all nominations will be selected for publication. Nominees are not required to be BCMA members.

Nomination Deadline is September 23, 2016.

Nominee		Nominated by
Name:		Name:
Email Address:		Email Address:
Phone:		Phone:

How did you hear about this opportunity?

Submission Requirements

Nominations may be submitted by BCMA members or non members and must include:

- Completed nomination form

- A detailed letter of nomination (500 words max) with specific, concrete examples that speak to the nominee's innovation, advocacy, imagination and advancement in the field. Application must demonstrate how their contribution has added long or short term value to the field.

If selected, the nominee must chose to accept the nomination and will then supply a resume or biography summarizing their background and contributions.

Please submit your completed nomination via email by September 23, 2016 to:

jlemke@museumsassn.bc.ca

Include the nominator and nominee's names in the subject line.