Session #8: Effective Tools for Engaging your Employees and Customers

The world is changing. As new technology continues to affect how we do business and how we access goods and services, at the centre of all of this is the customer. As industries become more complex, customers' expectations continue to rise. What's the secret to delivering a consistently great customer experience in this ever changing landscape? The answer lies in organizational commitment. Research shows that the main driver for performance and profitability is engagement; engagement of customers as well as employees. This session will provide you with some tools to help you learn more about your customers, their likes and dislikes as well as gain valuable intelligence on the staff that serve them.

Presenter: Portia Mann, Project Manager, Richmond Olympic Oval
