

2017 CONFERENCE

CLIMATE FOR CHANGE:

How museums are meeting the challenges of a changing world

October 3-5 → Victoria

This is your opportunity to learn, connect and celebrate with colleagues from across British Columbia at the only provincial conference for museum, gallery and history professionals.

Conference highlights

- › Learn about best practices and innovations in museums, art galleries and cultural centres
- › Explore issues of social justice, climate change, and collaboration with Indigenous communities
- › Meet a wide variety of industry Exhibitors
- › Find advice at the Ask the Expert roundtables

Celebrate the BCMA's 60th Anniversary!

The BCMA Conference offers something for everyone whether you are a student, emerging professional, Board member, mid-career professional or organizational leader.

Host Hotel

Inn at Laurel Point on Victoria's Inner Harbour.

Special events

- › "Warming Up" welcome reception – a fun and creative networking opportunity hosted by BCMA's Emerging Museum Professionals sub-committee at The Bateman Centre
- › "Night at the Museum" at the Royal BC Museum
- › BCMA Awards for Outstanding Achievement
- › BCMA's 60th Anniversary Gala Dinner

Register today

- › Early Bird Deadline: ends July 17
- › Regular Registration: July 18 – September 11
- › Late Registration: begins September 12

---

Register here

For more information, visit museumsassn.bc.ca

With Keynote Presentation by Senator Patricia Bovey

Senator, Former Gallery Director, Curator, Art Historian, Writer, and Professor

Senator Bovey's presentation is generously sponsored by the Department of Art History & Visual Studies and the Faculty of Fine Arts at the University of Victoria, as part of the Fine Arts Orion Lecture Series.

