

2017 CONFERENCE

CLIMATE FOR CHANGE:

How museums are meeting the challenges of a changing world

October 3-6 → Victoria

Learn, connect and celebrate with colleagues from across British Columbia at the only provincial conference for museum, gallery and history professionals.

- › Learn about best practices and innovations in museums, art galleries and cultural centres
- › Explore issues of social justice, environment, and collaboration with Indigenous communities

Conference highlights

- › Exhibitors Showcase
- › "Ask the Expert" roundtables
- › Return of Owl's Bookstore

The BCMA Conference offers something for everyone whether you are a student, emerging professional, Board member, mid-career professional or organizational leader.

Full Conference schedule at museumsassn.bc.ca

Host Hotel

Inn at Laurel Point on Victoria's Inner Harbour.

Special events

- › "Warming Up" welcome reception – hosted by BCMA's Emerging Museum Professionals sub-committee at The Bateman Centre
- › "Night at the Museum" at the Royal BC Museum
- › BCMA Awards for Outstanding Achievement
- › BCMA's 60th Anniversary Gala Dinner with special guest, The Honourable Judith Guichon, OBC, Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia

Register today

- › Early Bird Deadline: ends July 17
- › Regular Registration: July 18 – September 11
- › Late Registration: begins September 12

Register here

With support from:

With Keynote Presentation by Senator Patricia Bovey

Senator, Former Gallery Director, Curator, Art Historian, Writer, and Professor

Senator Bovey's presentation is generously sponsored by the Department of Art History & Visual Studies and the Faculty of Fine Arts at the University of Victoria, as part of the Fine Arts Orion Lecture Series.

