Coming Soon!

Collaborate: A symposium of partnerships, ideas and innovation from B.C.'s Galleries, Libraries, Archives and Museums sector

Tuesday, May 8, 2018

10:00 am – 3:30 pm

Sheraton Vancouver Airport, Richmond BC

Registration opening soon!

B.C.'s GLAM sector partners – British Columbia Museums Association, British Columbia Library Association and Archives Association of British Columbia – proudly present a symposium that will showcase the power of collaboration in the gallery, library, archives and museum (GLAM) sector and set the agenda for future innovation and partnership.

Join us for a day of learning and discovery as presenters share their achievements and aspirations for the GLAM sector and ask symposium participants to do the same. Come ready to think, listen and engage in the collective future of B.C.'s dynamic GLAM sector.

Will you join us?

Keynote speaker

Prem Gill is Chief Executive Officer of Creative BC.

The agency is designated by the Province of British Columbia to focus on uniting, sustaining and growing British Columbia's dynamic and diverse creative sector including motion picture, music and sound recording, interactive and digital media, and magazine and book publishing.

Prem has been named one of Canada's 100 most powerful women, Vancouver Magazine's "Power 50", Community Catalyst by the Greater Vancouver Board of Trade and listed as one of The Globe and Mail's 10 Women Who Matter in Film and TV. She brings more than 20 years of experience from the digital media and entertainment industries to her current role as CEO, where she is responsible for delivering a wide range of programs and services that will expand BC's creative economy to reach its economic and creative potential both at home and globally.
