

Museum Interpreter

The Vancouver Police Museum is on the hunt for a creative, engaging and enthusiastic individual to add to our staff through the Canada Summer Jobs program.

A little about our museum

The Vancouver Police Museum is ranked one of the best police museums in the world by the International Police Association. It's public programs are ranked among the best in the city by Yelp.com, and canoe.ca rated the museum's Sins of the City program one of the World's Ten Best City Walks. Housed in a heritage building that was once the Coroner's Court, the City Morgue and the city's autopsy facilities, the Vancouver Police Museum offers interactive school and public programs in forensic sciences, crime history and law enforcement that satisfy major curriculum requirements of the B.C. Ministry of Education.

A little about this opportunity

This opportunity will provide a range of experiences from facilitating exciting education and public programs to researching new programs and evaluating current ones. Our new team member will play a leading role in marketing the museum and its programs. The work pace is fast and fully hands-on, and will involve almost every area of museum operations.

This opportunity comes with Responsibilities

- Conceive and develop exciting, engaging, fun-filled programs for elementary, secondary and ESL students
- Conduct guided tours inside the museum and walking tours in the museum's historic neighbourhood
- Create materials for participants' use in museum programs and special events
- Assist in greeting visitors to the museum

Who we're looking for

- Ability to shine independently yet work collegially with the museum team
- Excellent communication skills as a writer and marketer, coupled with public speaking abilities that engage and inspire museum audiences
- Strong basic computer skills, mainly MS Office, A fast learner, able to quickly understand and share the history of crime and law enforcement in the city
- Full-time student for the coming academic year

Application deadline: July 28, 2017

Position Details: August 1 - September 8, 2018 Remuneration: $13hr, 40 hrs/wk

Please submit your resume by e-mail to: director@vancouverpolicemuseum.ca
Vancouver Police Museum | 240 E. Cordova Street, Vancouver, B.C. V6A 1L3