Career Development Conference

Thursday February 7th, 2019

Every winter, RRU opens its doors to welcome employers and organizations to meet and mingle with over 300 students and alumni. This day is not just about students finding jobs, but about self-discovery and meeting new business associates. It is a day of sharing experiences and learning from others, while also promoting your business and speaking with talented students from RRU's diverse bachelor and master programs.
