

MEDIA ADVISORY
February 21, 2020

This Advisory is Embargoed Until February 25, 2020, 5:00 p.m. PST

PACIFIC MARITIME CENTRE, CONFERENCE CENTRE AND PERFORMING ARTS THEATRE PLANNED FOR THE CITY OF LANGFORD

(Langford, B.C.) - At 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday February 25, 2020 at the City Centre Grill located at 1089 Langford Parkway, the City of Langford and the Maritime Museum of BC will be entering into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for the proposed construction of a state-of-the-art maritime museum, conference centre and theatre in Langford.

A full media release including preliminary renderings and a site map will be available on Monday, February 25.

As a lead up to Tuesday's event, on Monday February 24 at 10:30 a.m. an opportunity is being offered to media to interview Mayor of Langford Stewart Young and Chair of the Maritime Museum of BC Captain John Clarkson regarding this exciting initiative.

INTERVIEW LOCATION INFORMATION

City of Langford Finlayson Arm Property
3680 Trans Canada Highway
Langford, BC
10:30 a.m. Monday, February 24

(Google Map Link Here: turn right at the Google Map reference to the lookout and a City staff member will direct you further. Important to note that this is not an actual lookout point as this is incorrect in Google Maps)

-30-

For Further Information Contact:

Braden Hutchins
Director of Corporate Services
City of Langford
bhutchins@langford.ca | 250.857.0301

David Leverton
Executive Director
Maritime Museum of BC
dleverton@mmbc.bc.ca | 250.702.3101