

Object - Brief (Hitlist)

Object ID	Object Name	Description	Date	General condition
015.13.21	organ	Historic wooden organ in Bride's room of Minoru Chapel. Organ in bridle suite Rectangular brown wood organ; two red carpet pedals; white keys with dark stained ebony wood keys; has black board behind keys with 13 knobs; has ornate feet with vertical grooves; has two pull out knobs underneath the keyboard that read "knees swell" (swings TR to TL) and "full organ" (swings TL to TR); middle section of organ above keyboard has ornate square design around a plaque that reads "Organ donated by Mr &amp; Mrs David Dick June 1968"; black slate between keyboard and knobs reads on the far TR side in gold faded letters "W Doherty &amp; Co."; TL side also in gold lettering reads "Clinton Canada"; foot pedals (red carpet) read on the TR pedal "Doherty" and TL pedal reads "organ"; 13 knobs read in black ink on white knobs (from TR to TL: "Dolce," "Diapason," illegible, "Cornet," "Bass coupler," "Diapason forte," "Vox Humana," "Treble coupler," illegible, "Principal," "Vox Celeste," "Diapason," illegible).		Good
985.51.1	piano	Square, honey-stained baby grand piano with four solid wood detached legs with casters and a detached pedal stand and attached music stand.	01-Jan-1850	Good	