

GULF OF GEORGIA CANNERY NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Part Time Heritage Interpreter Job Posting

The Gulf of Georgia Cannery, built in 1894 in the village of Steveston, is a living monument to the individuals involved in Canada's West Coast fishing industry. It is now a Parks Canada national historic site operated by the Gulf of Georgia Cannery Society, an independent, non-profit society and registered charity. The site is open to the public year-round and welcomes over 60,000 visitors each year.

We are seeking outgoing individuals to join our front-line Heritage Interpreter team, dedicated to providing exemplary customer service in presenting the site and its history to our visitors.

Reporting to the Marketing & Visitor Services Manager, and working with the Audience Engagement Manager, responsibilities include:

- Delivering interpretation and visitor services inside the historic site/museum
- Performing front desk duties, including greeting visitors, responding to visitor inquiries, and conducting admission and Cannery Store retail transactions
- Assisting with special events and educational programs as required

Qualifications:

- Excellent customer service skills; public speaking experience an asset
- Previous experience working with children an asset
- Ability to work independently and to multi-task
- Ability to work as an effective team member
- Fluency in English is required; fluency in French an asset
- A criminal record check is required

This is a permanent, part-time position, with possibility of full-time hours from May to August. Must be available to work weekdays and holidays.

Starting wage is $14.60 per hour, plus 4% in lieu of vacations.

Please forward your resume and cover letter to:
